Moldova mɔl'doʊvə/, officially the Republic of Moldova (Moldovan/Romanian: Republica Moldova pronounced [re'publika mol'dova]) is a landlocked state in Eastern Europe located between Romania to the west and Ukraine to the north, east, and south. It declared itself an independent state with the same boundaries as the preceding Moldavian Soviet Socialist Republic in 1991 as part of the dissolution of the Soviet Union. A strip of Moldova's internationally recognized territory on the east bank of the river Dniester has been under the de facto control of the breakaway government of Transnistria since 1990.

Notice this last one.

Someone is intercepting the traffic to my Web site. When someone attracts their attention (or a Web page attracts their attention) they do a shadow access from 150.70.172.104 (a proxy server in Japan). Because it is in Japan they cannot be subpoenaed by a U.S. Court.

The shadow access usually happens within a few minutes of whatever attracted their attention.

This has been going on for over four years.

When I asked the FBI if it was them, they acted very offended that I would ask them such a thing.

Here it is again. It isn't clear which access they are shadowing.

This one is especially interesting.

Nevada Land & Resource Company was defrauded by the Iranian who stole some of my patents until the U.S. District Court for the District of Arizona ordered the Patent Office to give them back to me. (The Patent Office complied.)

I have no idea why Nevada Land & Resource would be interested in Tom, or why the FBI (presumably) would be interested in them. Or, maybe the FBI is interested in Tom.
